Ducks' Joffrey Lupul to have surgery

December 16, 2009 | 12:03 pm

The Ducks' Joffrey Lupul will undergo surgery Thursday to repair a herniated disc in his back and will be out at least six to eight weeks.

The loss of Lupul, who has 10 goals and 14 points, is only the latest blow to a team (12-13-7) already without left wing Teemu Selanne (broken hand) and center Ryan Carter (fractured foot).

The surgery will be performed by Dr. Robert Watkins at Marina del Rey Hospital.

I guess it's fitting for the Ducks that when it rains, it pours.

SILVERADO

Silverado from Chevy—the most dependable, longest lasting full-size pickups on the road.¹

1. Dependability based on longevity: 1981-July 2008 full-size pickup registrations.

The advertisement features a blue Chevrolet Silverado pickup truck parked on a dirt road in a rural setting. The truck is shown from a front-three-quarter view. The background is a clear blue sky with some light clouds. The text is overlaid on the top and middle sections of the image.

LATimes.com now offers sports tickets to popular sporting events around the world including basketball tickets, baseball tickets, and football tickets to otherwise sold-out events.

Popular Events

As the Dodgers are playing tough in the NL West, Dodgers tickets have been selling great all season. LA Angels tickets are as always a big hit, and there are plenty of fans looking for Athletics tickets and Padres tickets too.

USC Trojans football tickets are also in high demand, as the NCAA football season starts up again.
